

APG SEEKS ADVISORS IN ALL ZONES THIS FALL

Pulse producers who want to grow the province's pulse industry while developing their own leadership skills are invited to let their names stand for election as an Alberta Pulse Growers (APG) Advisor in their zone this fall.

"I strongly encourage any interested pulse farmers to join the APG team," APG Chair Robert Semeniuk said. "I started out as an Advisor like most APG Directors. Becoming an Advisor is a great way to get involved with APG. Each of our five zones has available positions and it's a good introduction to the organization, working on committees, and making things happen for Alberta pulse farmers."

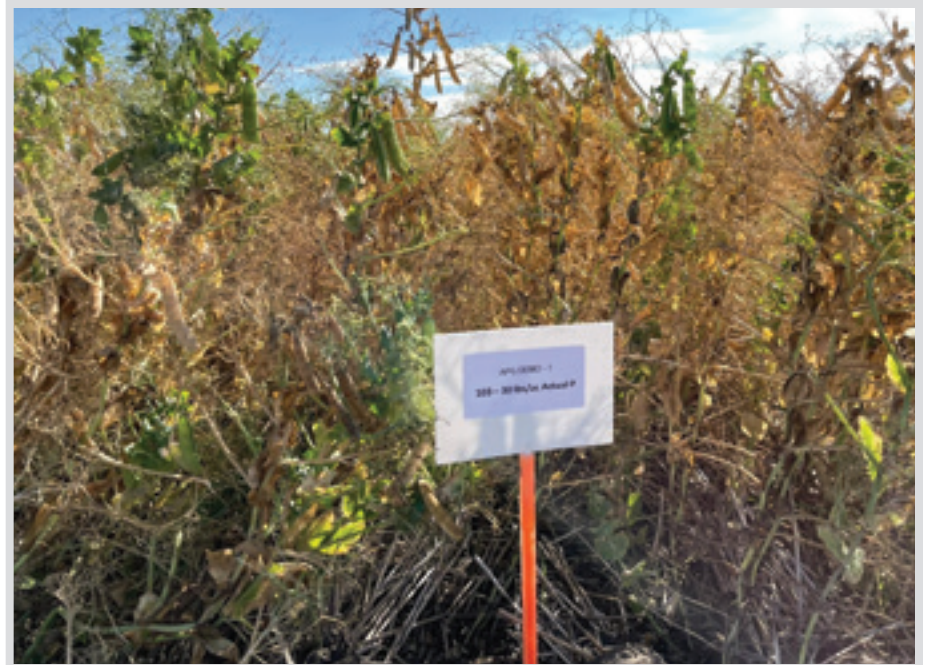

A team of Advisors leads extension activities specific to each of APG's five zones. Directors on APG's provincial board often serve as Advisors first.

Zones 1, 3 and 4 each have three available Advisor positions this year, while Zone 2 has four positions and Zone 5 has one.

Producers must have sold pulses and paid service charges since August 1, 2019 in order to be eligible as an Advisor.

Anyone interested in letting their name stand for an Advisor position is asked to complete and submit a nomination form by Nov. 1, 2021.

Each candidate must be endorsed by another pulse producer from their zone. More information is available on the homepage at www.albertapulse.com.

The Gateway Research Organization conducted pea fertilizer (phosphorus) trials this year near Westlock in APG's Zone 3.

Vera Kahlon, 2, helps mom Dr. Jagroop Gill Kahlon, APG Research Officer, check out the Zone 5 pea liming trial in August 2021.